THE ART OF THE BODY: ANTIQUITY AND ITS LEGACY (PAPERBACK)

Oxford University Press, USA, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The classical human body is perhaps the single most important and wide-ranging legacy bequeathed to the modern world by antiquity. Not only has it directed the evolutionary trajectory of western art; it has also saturated almost every aspect of the contemporary subconscious, as ideal, anti-type and point of departure. This short book represents the first concerted attempt to grapple with the complex nature of...
