THEY KILLED THE ICE CREAM MAN: MY SEARCH FOR THE TRUTH BEHIND MY BROTHER JOHN S MURDER (PAPERBACK)

Colourpoint Books, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. My brother John Larmour was a police officer in the Royal Ulster Constabulary (RUC). On October 11th 1988 he was off duty and looking after my family-run ice cream parlour, Barnam s World of Ice Cream. I was on holiday in Spain with my wife and two young daughters at the time. John was shot dead that night by the IRA. A teenage couple were also in the parlour. The gunmen callously opened fire on them too. One of the guns they used had been taken from a murdered soldier. The other was a police issue pistol that had been used in other killings. My brother s brutal murder has been gently immortalised in a poem The Ice Cream Man by award winning poet, Michael Longley. His thoughtful words brought a degree of comfort to my Mum and Dad who died of broken hearts. My brother, like all police officers, lived with constant danger. He knew that. But he couldn t have known the complexity of the story that would unfold after his death. My search for the truth behind John s murder started on that fateful night in October 1988. Wrangling with the police and the cold case Historical Enquiries Team, raised suspicions, not lightly dispelled, of collusion. The more I learned the more I came to suspect that recruiting and protecting an agent, a Supertout inside the upper echelons of the IRA was more important to some of John s police colleagues than catching his killers. This is my story.
