Excerpt from Snips and Cuts, 1922, Vol. 13 What is now the Junior High School, on the corner of Ninth and Brevard Streets, an eleventh grade was added to the school system. The eighth and ininth grades were then held in the South School, on the corner of South Boulevard and East Morehead, while the tenth and eleventh were placed in the Junior High: build ing. These four upper classes were recognized as a part of the graded school system. Two elective subjects were introduced - physics and French - while trigonometry was added to the geometry course. In this year the first real graduation took place. Diplomas were presented to about ten students. And on this Commencement Day the present custom of holding Class Day Exercises in the morning, as a separate event from the graduation at night, was instituted. It was in this eventful year of 1909, also, that the first volume of snips and cuts appeared. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
