

Ulster Stock

---

By Michael Sheane

Arthur H. Stockwell Ltd, 2007. Soft cover. Condition: New. To the Romans, the clans of Ulster were sunk in barbarism, and certainly much of their early history resounds to the clash of arms. Many fighting men lost their heads to the sword and axe of invading enemies, but as Michael Sheane records in this vivid account, all too often the clans quarrelled among themselves, feuding and fighting their way through the centuries.
