

Addicted To Reform: A Twelve-Step Program to Rescue Public Education (Hardback)

By John Merrow

The New Press, United States, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The prize-winning PBS correspondent's provocative antidote to America's misguided approaches to K-12 school reform. During an illustrious four-decade career at NPR and PBS, John Merrow--winner of the George Polk Award, the Peabody Award, and the McGraw Prize--reported from every state in the union, as well as from dozens of countries, on everything from the rise of district-wide cheating scandals and the corporate greed driving an ADD epidemic to teacher-training controversies and America's obsession with standardized testing. Along the way, he taught in a high school, at a historically black college, and at a federal penitentiary. Now, the revered education correspondent of PBS NewsHour distills his best thinking on education into a twelve-step approach to fixing a K-12 system that Merrow describes as being addicted to reform but unwilling to address the real issue: American public schools are ill-equipped to prepare young people for the challenges of the twenty-first century. This insightful book looks at how to turn digital natives into digital citizens and why it should be harder to become a teacher but easier to be one. Merrow offers smart, essential chapters--including...
