RESTRUCTURING THE INDIAN POLICE SYSTEM

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | Need for Accountability and Efficiency | The Indian society is passing through a transient phase of social change with many new challenges emerging to redefine the role of police functions. With the existing structure the gap between police and administration on one side and people on the other is widening. The main legal instrument which presently governs the Indian Police Forces is the Indian Police Act, 1861 and any discussion on Police...
