Clark of Texas, Delivered in the House of Representatives, March 2, 1872 The House having met for debate as in Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union - Mr. Clark, of Texas, said: Mr. Speaker: I now resume the floor, and ask the Clerk to read a joint resolution introduced by me at this session, and to which I propose to address some remarks. The Clerk read as follows: Joint resolution providing for the cession by the State of Texas of certain territory of that State to the United States, for Indian reservations and other purposes. Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That the President of the United States be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to submit to the Legislature of the State of Texas an overture for the cession by the State of Texas to the United States of all that territory rightly belonging to the said State lying and being situate north and west of a line drawn from the northwest corner of Hardeman county, on the Red river, to the mouth of the Pecos river, where tho same empties into the Rio Grande del Norte. Sec. 2. That the foregoing overture by Congress shall be made upon tho following conditions, to wit: first, that the Legislature of the State of Texas shall give its consent to the cession of said territory for the present purposes of Indian reservations, and also for the formation and erection therein of new States, under the Constitution of the United States, whenever...
