Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Do you need your child to like or respect you? Are you concerned your older child is junior parenting ? Want to be your child s hero? Licensed professional counselor Jim Wunderle has you covered with his new book, 101 Sound Bites for Parents. Each one is a bite of information, a small chunk of sound, solid, reliable advice. Topics range from how to stand firm when you make a decision-no matter how much your child disapproves-to the importance of monitoring your child s Facebook usage. 101 Sound Bites for Parents features advice for a variety of ages through a quick but carefully worded read offering value with every section-and often taking only about three or four sentences to do so. Wunderle, who was inspired to write after the success of his weekly parenting tips e-mails, became a licensed professional counselor in 1996. He currently has a private practice in Arkansas. But his parenting knowledge doesn t come only from being a counselor. He s also the father of five children and has been married for thirty-seven years. So when you ve got a parenting struggle and don t know what to do, grab Wunderle s book for a bite of advice worth reading.
