Leader Reach: Essays on the Dynamics of Values, Communication, Spirituality and Power in Leadership (Paperback)

By Dr Bonny V Banks

Steward Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Every leader has a leadership style. Leaders reveal their leadership style in the ways leaders communicate with followers. Communication is verbal as well as non-verbal and also consists of decisions that let followers know, not only what leaders think of followers, but what leaders think of the organization and of themselves as individuals. All persons have certain intrinsic needs to be understood, valued, appreciated, and spiritually fulfilled. Spirituality is defined, not as religious fulfillment necessarily, but rather inner satisfaction and well-being. Leaders, in order to recognize and acknowledge followers needs, have first to understand their own inner needs and longings. Leaders met and unmet needs inform the leader/follower relationship, especially in the power dynamic. As well, leaders modes of communication say much more than mere words. Leaders actions speak volumes and contribute greatly to how followers see themselves as part of the organization. Organizations and leaders demonstrate values through organizational and leader behavior. When stated values are inconsistent with demonstrated values, followers become unsure of the veracity of leader words. Placing more weight upon leader actions, followers decide to govern themselves accordingly....
