Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is about information in life that we all should of been taught. I tell you my stories of what I went through with out this. It is a self help book with guidance and understanding and how parents forget to teach valuable information to their children. there are subjects I talk about such as money and credit, stealing, foods and eating, temptation, animals, faith and God, running away. A lot of subjects that we most face every day. I started this three years ago and I realized just how much I missed out of knowing what I needed for my life. I really think a lot of you can identify with this book and it will help you to see your not alone in any of it.It s not judge mental at all, we all face these situations in our life. but if we don t have the right information our lives go critically wrong. It was like therapy for myself going through all the memories and the years of remembering what it was like for me. It is in no particular order just as I happen to think of it all. So writing this all has helped me in so many ways and I hope it helps anyone out there struggling to why there life is haywire most of the time.I am in no way a expert on all this, it is from my life s experiences of where I got it all. I am hoping that I taught my children enough for their life. These stories are real and very personal to me and some are even embarrassing but I couldn t of done this book...
