Excerpt: . . . not see how we can undertake to finance the affairs of individual companies. This is an accounting scheme, and it provides for treatment of the matter, one way or the other; but, in order to get the sense of the meeting, I will ask Mr. Campbell to phrase his suggestion in a resolution. Mr. Campbell: I move that account 22 on page 70, be amended by striking out the words beginning Provided it is the policy of the corporation to capitalize such costs, otherwise the cost should be charged to the operating account Setting and Removing Meters. (This was duly seconded) Chairman Edwards: It is moved and seconded that account 22 end with the words incandescent lamps, on the third line. It will then read, Charge to this account the cost of the first setting of meters; also, the cost of connecting arc lamps, glower lamps and incandescent lamps. I would be glad to have the members discuss this question, before we put it to vote. Mr. Heydecke: The New Jersey Commission wording of this account reads: This account includes the cost of labor and materials for the first setting of meters, for determining the amount of electrical energy delivered to consumers, in case it is the policy of the corporation to capitalize the cost of such setting, leaving it optional with the company. Chairman Edwards: Any further remarks upon this motion This is a fundamental question. The question involved is whether this Association...
