Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Shrapnel and Other War Material A Nation depends very largely upon its machine shops for industrial prosperity in time of peace - for machinery building is the basic industry upon which all manufacturing depends. In time of war these same machine shops must produce the materials for defense, a lesson which the Canadian shops have learned to the fullest extent during the past few months. Thus as a patriotic measure, it behooves machine-shop owners and managers to become familiar with the general methods of making munitions of war, and to analyze their own capabilities along these lines if occasion to put them to use should arise. This is not predicting in the slightest degree that the occasion will arise, but advocates a business-like attitude on the part of the machinery-building industries of our country. The adoption of this attitude will eliminate serious delay if the remote possibility should ever become a fact. But entirely aside from this feature of the subject, descriptions of processes that have been developed to produce shells, guns and other war...
