

At War: Me and My Charley-47

By W. L. Johnson

E-BookTime, LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 224 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in. At War: Me and My Charley-47 is a new WW II book by an Army Air Force Troop Carrier pilot about the flying stevedores of the Army Air Force whose daily work was flying urgently needed gasoline, blood plasma, food and ammunition into cow pastures up front behind the armored spearheads and evacuating wounded in the face of terrible weather conditions. Operation Varsity, the Airborne crossing of the Rhine is described in graphic detail along with his squadrons glider casualties. This photo-illustrated book has an exceptional group of never before published pre-war photos of Hitler, Goering, Hess, Himmler, etc. , at the mass party rallies in Nuremberg stadium. These photos were liberated under the noses of several hundred SS troops at considerable risk to the author. He takes you from his Aviation Cadet training to becoming a twin-engine flight instructor before going overseas to England with 600 like instructors for a special mission, called Eclipse. His 62nd Troop Carrier Squadron, better known as the Yacht Club Squadron, gets a new, 23 year-old commander after the former commanding officer is shipped home to avoid being tried for shooting the...
