Not illustrated. 1888 Excerpt: .from the experience of the Westinghouse Company in the States, that would be more weighty on this side of the ocean, if they were known to have been carefully verified. Some results of tests of the efficiency of transformers were given by Professor Ayrton, --the method of testing having been borrowed from our side of the water, --and values of 96 per cent were obtained under the most favorable conditions. As has been pointed out, however, in a former number of this journal, the transformers only work at the maximum efficiency for a short time during the day, so that the average efficiency will not probably be above 80 per cent. Various speakers favored different systems of distribution, but there were very few who had no experience to give; and the discussion was an interesting and instructive one. BOOK-REVIEWS. Transactions of the Association of American Physicians. Second session, held at Washington, D.C., June 2 and 3, 1887. Philadelphia, Assoc. Amer. Phys. The Transactions of the Association of American Physicians at their second annual meeting in Washington has been published. This association is without doubt the most representative body of the medical profession of the United States, having on its roll of membership the most prominent physicians of the country. The papers which are contained in this volume are of a very high order, and the discussions are exceedingly pointed and valuable. The treatment of consumption by Bergeon s method, that is, by gaseous enemata, was the...
