The Story of Life: A First Book about Evolution (Paperback)

By Catherine Barr, Steve Williams

Frances Lincoln Publishers Ltd, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Amy Husband (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book. At first, nothing lived on Earth. It was a noisy, hot, scary place. Choking gas exploded from volcanoes and oceans of lava bubbled around the globe. Then in the deep, dark ocean, something amazing happened. This is an exciting and dramatic story about how life began and developed on Planet Earth, written especially for younger children. The authors explain how the first living cell was created, and how the cells multiply and create jellyfish and worms, and then fish with bendy necks, which drag themselves out of the water into swampy forests. They tell the story of the biggest creatures that have ever walked on land - the dinosaurs. Long after that, hairy creatures who have babies, not eggs, take over, stand on two legs and spread around the world, some of them living through cataclysmic events such as ice ages and volcanic eruptions. Everyone living today is related to these survivors. With delightful illustrations including lots of detail and humour, all carefully researched and checked, this book shows the development of life on Earth in a truly accessible and simple...

Reviews

A top quality ebook and the font used was fascinating to read through. It is written in easy terms and not confusing. It's been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is simply after I finished reading through this publication through which actually altered me, alter the way I believe.

-- Roberto Block

It is one of my personal favorite books. It is one of the most incredible ebooks I have got to go through. You will not feel monotony at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you ask me).
