The consciousness of tasks well-performed will give a zest to your play that, while it toughens your muscles, will elevate and strengthen your mind. Games Without Toys. I Spy Is a good game for the play-ground or the field. The players separate into two parties; one party must hide their eyes in a chosen base or home, (and no peeping allowed), while the rest seek out the best hiding-places they can find. One of the hiding party waits until his companions are hidden, and then ensconces himself in some nook, crying: Whoop, as he does so, as a signal to the opposing party that they may sally forth. The object of the hidden ones is to rush out suddenly, and touch one of the opposing party, before they can retreat to the shelter of the home. On the other hand, if one of the seekers can detect the lurking-place of any foe, he gives the alarm by crying: I spy Brown! or: I spy Smith! whereupon the said Brown or Smith must come out and try to touch one of the retreating crew, who scour away home at his appearance. Every one thus touched counts one toward the side of the player who touched him. When all that are of one side have come out of their concealment, the opposite party take their turn at hiding; and the side which...
