Meet the brothers Kazi, Taj, Zahir, and Maaz Gucciano. better known to the streets as The Gucci Gang. Raised by a Muslim father and an exconvict of a mother. Most times they were left to fend for themselves, especially when the death of their father hits home. Taj, the baby boy suffers the most from that brutal night after witnessing his father getting killed in front of him. In his mind, there was more he should ve been able to do to help, but because of his demons. he can't control his anger issues, even when it comes to the women that he chooses to love. A real ladies man to those who know him, but a true thug at heart was the only way to describe him. He battles with trying to find peace somewhere in his life without his brother s always having to guide him. A little rough around the edges with the right amount of swag. he wasn t one to be messed with and always wants what he wants, even if it meant messing with something he couldn't have. Kazi and Zahir, the two middle boys and the two closes of the Gucciano brothers were inseparable and did everything together causing straight Havoc in the streets. Kazi worked in the hospital as an O.R. Assistant by day and was a gambler by night. Zahir on the other hand wasn't working a job for anybody. He was content with owning his own trailer tractor company and making moves when he wanted. One thing their parent's always instilled in them was how to be a hustlers. If they didn't know how to do anything...
