Brand New Book. Excerpt from The Speeches, Addresses and Writing of Cassius M. Clay, Jr.: Including a Biographical Sketch In politics Mr. Clay was a Democrat of the Cleveland type, a firm believer in and an able advocate of the system of checks and balances provided for under the Constitution against the irresponsible rule of a majority. He was a constant advocate of a Tariff for Revenue only, and of a sound fiscal policy, adhering to a gold basis. He held in just contempt the heresy of a double standard and treated with scorn the craze of 16 to He held that the great danger of the future would be Communism and Socialism, and hence opposed all insidious efforts to break down the barriers which protect life and property through the gradual extension of Government monopoly in the field of governmental domain. One of the most conspicuous features of his character was his utter impartiality. This perhaps grew out of his strong sense of justice, his clear intuition of truth and his adherence to principle. No one ever suspected him of selfish or narrow motives. He was charitable in his judgment of others, conservative, even-tempered and controlled by high ideals of life and of duty. He was simple in his tastes and wants, courageously cheerful in sorrow, reserved in business and private affairs, yet capable of strong and deep affection, standing steadfastly by his friends. During the later years of his life his health was precarious and required close attention, but even thus, no duty was neglected and no obligation left unfulfilled. He was closely...
