It was our last performance together, and we not only felt regret at the time for this close of our happy comradeship, but dear Charles Dickens s letters for a long time afterwards expressed his pain at its cessation. Genial, kind, most sympathetic, and fascinating was his companionship, and very precious to me was his friendship. In the autumn of that year my dear mother s health became so delicate that our medical adviser counselled her removal to a warmer climate; and she chose Nice (then Italian) for the proposed purpose. My sister Sabilla gave up all her pursuits in England and accompanied her abroad; and they took up their abode in a pleasant set of apartments in...
