Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.If you re wanting a happy fairytale, keep looking. This isn t he story for you. But if you re looking for a mythical story filled with dystopia and magic, both dark and light, keep reading. Every baby is killed beneath the waves--with one exception. The one-hundred thousandth lives. A long time ago, 1 in every 100,000 children born from a human was a mermaid. But now mermaids are the only ones that can survive in this flooded world. The human children, the one-hundreds, are placed on the islands poking up over the sea. The humans that live through Mother Nature s fury have created Tribes, created rules. One of these rules is to not go near the water, to not touch it. And then there s a girl who lives to be sixteen, who goes and touches the water. Who begins to show symptoms of something half-human. Symptoms of a mermaid. These symptoms have drawn something out from the depths of the woods, from the darkness of the sea. And it s out to get this girl that s growing scales. The One-Hundred in the midst of one-hundreds. Cressa-la. Gifted and spared. Will she be so lucky again? EXERPT FROM THE ONE-HUNDRED Every cycle, this is where I hide. I say it as if I have a choice. I don t go out, I don t eat, I just try to fall asleep, and yet I still end up dreaming about the moon and all the trouble it could get me into. My feet find their way to my hammock and I lay down, my weight making it sway. My voice...
