Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Coloring, yes that skill you may have mastered as a child, is actually a very powerful form of meditation. Current research shows that coloring creates something called a flow state where your mind is engaged and relaxed at that same time. This meditative state that can be achieved with much practice and training or a few colored pencils. The repetition of patterns can help you nudge your brain to Theta wave formation. These are the brain waves that you have during deep meditation. The same waves usually only accessed by highly trained practitioners. When meditating it often helps to have an intention, that is, a thought of what you would like to direct your attention toward. Affirmations work the same way in that the more you can center yourself on them the more you will find those things happening in your life. Is this magic? Probably not. I suspect it is like thinking about buying a yellow car. Suddenly you start seeing yellow cars everywhere when you don t remember seeing them before. Magic or not, having a pleasant thought foremost in your mind is never a bad thing and can help your mood. All of the images in this book are created from various affirmations, or intentions. Each intention is written out and then used to create the designs you see here. In this particular book, all of the affirmations are designed to bring more love and romance into your life. The images are of varying levels of complexity. Some may take you an hour or two, some may take several sessions over as many days. I ve grouped the images based on the intention they were created...
