Guided Reading

Introduction

- Refer to the Before Reading activity, reminding the children that they have made notes about how pictures and photos help them to remember details about Tutankhamen.
- Model using an index to look up a specific piece of information, and read it aloud to the group. Discuss all the things you found out. Draw attention to key words, illustrations and phrases that helped you. Show the children how to note these down.

Independent Reading

- Ask each child to use the index and select entries to look up.
- Ask them to read quietly to themselves and look closely at the pictures or photos.
- After ten minutes, ask them to stop and to note down or discuss new things they have learned from their reading.
