Make a joyful noise unto the Lord all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness; come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the Lord he is God it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him and bless his name. For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations. This Psalm is the paeon of a rejoicing people. It was composed and recorded for the service of public praise, and was doubtless first used on that sublime occasion of national joy and festivity, when the Ark of the Covenant, as the hallowed symbol of God's presence and favor was put in its place in the Temple of Solomon, with the shouts of an assembled nation. The circumstances of...
