

Now I Know: Essays Monologues (Paperback)

By James Judd

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . He s one of the funniest five people on the planet. But his real gift goes beyond even that. James magically takes us with him, wherever he s going. Places I never thought to explore. Locked in a shark cage, marching up the steps of a courthouse, trying to escape a Chinese brothel-we are there with him. -Glynn Washington, host of NPR s Snap Judgment James Judd has made audiences laugh for years on National Public Radio s Snap Judgment, an award-winning storytelling program. Now he s collected eleven of his most popular stories in a book that will thrill his devoted listeners. The breezy writing style and self-deprecating humor demonstrate exactly why Judd has millions of fans. Some of Judd s autobiographical monologues and essays may make readers squirm from secondhand embarrassment. But even when Judd shares his most memorable humiliations and failures, he s always upbeat. His ability to laugh at himself and his predicaments is only surpassed by his ability to bounce back from any debacle. Whether you re a performer hoping to sharpen your comedic...
