Laurel Croton, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Acapulco detective Emilia Cruz confronts the shocking disappearance of 43 college students in 43 MISSING, the sixth novel in the series that takes you inside Mexico s drug wars with a fearless style and an unforgettable woman. 43 MISSING is based on the true events of September 2014, when 43 male students from the Ayotzinapa Rural Teachers College went missing in Iguala, Guerrero and have yet to be found. Given the choice between resigning or a new assignment, Emilia finds herself on a national task force examining Mexico s most notorious crime. The junior member. The only woman. After 18 months and three inconclusive investigations, the task force is the Mexican government s last attempt to discover what happened to 43 students who disappeared after being seized by police in a small southern city. Yet the effort, comprised of cops from across the country, is primed for failure. More people are concerned with reputations than in finding out the truth. Even as Emilia jumps into the fray, she s on the hunt for the rapist and murderer known as El Acolito, with whom she has an agonizing family tie. Digging into his past life in Mexico City, she ll learn a shocking truth about the man she s determined to kill. As the task force spins into chaos, a diplomat from the United States embassy offers Emilia $50,000 to end the investigation into the missing students. The diplomat claims the task force is delaying the extradition of a famous jailed cartel leader known as the Barrel Bomber, who escaped from prison in Mexico twice before. It s a tempting offer. The money would shift Emilia s hunt for El Acolito into high gear....
