

Looking to the Future: Building a Curriculum for Social Activism (Hardback)

By D Hodson

Sense Publishers, United States, 2011. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 239 x 168 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In advocating an action-oriented and issues-based curriculum, this book takes the position that a major, but shamefully neglected, goal of science and technology education is to equip students with the knowledge, skills, attitudes and values to confront the complex and often ill-defined socioscientific issues they encounter in daily life as citizens in an increasingly technology-dominated world carefully, critically, confidently and responsibly. In outlining proposals for addressing socioscientific issues through a curriculum organized in terms of four increasingly sophisticated levels of consideration, the author adopts a highly critical and politicized stance towards the norms and values that underpin both scientific and technological development and contemporary scientific, engineering and medical practice, criticizes mainstream STS and STSE education for adopting a superficial, politically naive and, hence, educationally ineffective approach to consideration of socioscientific issues, takes the view that environmental problems are social problems occasioned by the values that underpin the ways in which we choose to live, and urges teachers to encourage students to reach their own views through debate and argument about where they stand on major socioscientific issues,...

Reviews

Simply no words to explain. It really is basic but shocks from the fifty percent of the ebook. I am just happy to explain how this is the finest pdf we have read within my personal life and could be the best ebook for possibly.

-- Blair Monahan

The ideal ebook i actually read through. It really is written in simple words and phrases and not confusing. Its been written in an remarkably simple way and it is just after i finished reading this ebook where in fact modified me, affect the way i think.
