FOUNDATIONS: SEEING, BELIEVING AND ACHIEVING (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Workbook. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There are too many people that are not fulfilling the purpose for which they were born. Instead, they are off doing something that they, themselves, have chosen to do. They are ignorant of one of the most detrimental mistakes that they have ever made. They never asked God to reveal their reason for being, that is, HIS vision and purpose for their lives. This is the third and last workbook in the Transformational Inversion Workbook Series, Foundations: Seeing, Believing and Achieving. This workbook is about setting and achieving complex goals, the final step in your transformational process. You articulate the over-arching purpose of your life and your vision, particularly what you see yourself becoming and achieving in the next seven to eleven years. You break your goals down into measurable objectives and you identify the action steps needed to achieve each objective. This is where the rubber hits the road. It is time to get out on faith and achieve your objectives, one action step at a time. As you achieve each objective, you approach nearer and nearer to completing your goal. Don t worry; you are given exercises that enable the successful completion of your personal sojourn before you embark upon this part of your transformational process. Most importantly, if you invite God to guide your processes, the Holy Spirit will respond. He will guide your steps; heal the broken places within you; and see to it that you are confronted with the precise mixture of people, places, conditions, and things that will work together to transform your daily interactions with life. It is through this dynamic, which cannot be quantified, that you will achieve your goals and much more...
