Excerpt: .Committee D-l now has 67 members and has held two meetings during the past year. At the meeting held November 14,1913,26 members were present, and at the meeting of April 17, 1914, 31 members were present. The committee has adopted Regulations Governing Committee D-1, which are attached to this report as Appendix I. In connection with the regulations governing the sampling of liquids, the secretary will furnish the necessary blank forms, labels, tags, seals, etc., to those procuring samples for any of the sub-committees. It was decided that the committee should not take up the question of the preservation of wood by impregnation. The following resolutions were passed at the meeting of April 17, 1914: Resolved, That Committee D-l holds that as it entered into a contract with the paint manufacturers who furnished the paint for the Havre de Grace Bridge, that the paints would not be identified with the manufacturers names, therefore, it is not authorized to furnish any information regarding these paints beyond that contained in the published reports of Committee D-l. Resolved, That this committee has no control over any statements made in regard to the published reports, and considers it inadvisable to comment on any such statements unless the statements are at variance with the facts stated in its reports. Sub-Committee VII on Influence of Pigments on Corrosion has been discontinued, and a new sub-committee known as Sub-Committee XIII on Shellac has been established. The committee has no standard specifications...
