E-Booktime, LLC, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is a fascination, an addiction, a plethora of wonder. It is also a record of a summer spent in trying to commune with stars, sun, earth, planets, moons, and angels. The summer was a long deliciousness of perfection of happiness of the self in becoming more and more. Through attempting to interact with such consciousnesses of such higher dimensional beings as stars and so forth, in attempting to find them telepathically and to feel their emotions their interests and to find their concerns their vibratory patterns, the authoress found that she had to act like an anchorite, like a nun, like a sadhu. She withdrew from worldly concerns for three years, during the last of which she wrote this book, and she fasted sometimes, meditated for hours a day, and refrained from all new purchases except necessities for a life of devotion. Eventually the authoress after such spiritual seekings, seemed to enter into a higher dimensional awareness and felt more to be her true self, the self that she should be were it not for the third dimension and other such interferences. She found that she was becoming possessed as it were when she wrote by higher consciousnesses experiences, which she felt to be exemplums of such beings as perhaps some distant stars, and perhaps some high archangels, and even perhaps some old earth divinities from earlier eras in history before Christianity, and she became aware that mundane life is not the only experience that is possible; there are indeed other dimensions and other patterns of being. Eventually the authoress entered into the realm of extreme mysticism that saints and medieval monks and scholars and some mystics of other...
