Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Virgin Blood Janie is one of the best fictional characters I ve come across in a long time -- beaten but not broken, earthy yet innocent, a thoroughly modern saint. . . . at the end of the book, I almost broke into tears. And you have the stylistic sophistication to be able to blend gritty realism and outright magic and pull it off. In short, Virgin Blood is a marvelous book. -- Dave King, Dave King Editorial Services When mentally challenged Janie Braxton arrives at the emergency room, she doesn t remember the rape and beating that sent her there. Nor does she understand why the spirit of an ancient Indian chief talks to her. Nor does she understand she too is on the astral plane. But as gang criminals chase her two little girls through the streets of St. Louis, her rage builds to an inferno that threatens the Indian chief s plot to realign the cosmos. The world labels Janie as mentally retarded soon after her birth. Other children make fun of her. Her father tries to beat the Devil out of her. Her uncle rapes her. Her mother wants to abort her baby. Her friends abandon her. Her criminal boyfriend beats her. Her boyfriend s mother steals her large back SSI check. Her boyfriend s younger brother Dewie hates her because he wants to screw her. On the astral plane, Sun of Suns, the ruthless spirit of a Native American king who ruled Cahokia before Europeans arrive, plots to return to the physical dimension as an all-powerful demon. Only Marilyn, a counselor at a homeless shelter for women, befriends Janie. Instructed by Sun of Suns, Dewie begins the sacrificial...
