Stag-hunting in the forest begins in August, and the meets are held through September, November, December, January, March, April, and part of May, thus covering a considerable period when fox-hunting has either ceased or not begun. Probably the late spring hunting is the most novel and picturesque experience which a day with the New Forest staghounds affords. But to those who enjoy the sight of hounds working, and at the same time have a taste for beautiful scenery, nothing could well be more delightful. Last season, sixty days sport averaged about the same number of deer killed. Blank days are unknown, and 3 there is the certainty of a run and of a day s enjoyment. The New Forest ponies are one of the most interesting features both of the landscape and the life of...
