How was her prayer answered 3. What was done with Samuel 4. What did Samuel hear one night 5. How many times did he hear the voice 6. What did Eli tell Samuel to do 7. Tell what happened after that. 8. What did Eli say TEMPTED AND TRIED My Dear Grandmother, --I do what you told me. You told me to bite my lips and count ten, before I spoke, when the boys plague me, because Im a spunky boy. But doing it so much makes my lips sore. So now I go head over heels sometimes, till Im out of breath. Then I cant say anything. This is the account you asked me for, of all Ive bought this week: Slippery elm 1 cent. Corn ball 1 cent. Gum 1 cent. The Two Betseys, they keep very good things to sell. They are two old women that live in a little hut with two rooms in it, and a ladder to go up stairs by, through a hole in the wall. One Betsey, she is lame and keeps still, and sells the things to us sitting down. The other Betsey, she can run, and keeps a yardstick to drive away boys with. For they have apple trees in their garden. But she never touches a boy, if she does catch him. They have hens and sell eggs. The boys that sleep in the same room that...
