TIGER HOUSE: THE FIRST CHRONICLE OF JAIRUS TANNER (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Fates have chosen you to act on behalf of our noble Houses. Challenges will be set. To ensure your utter cooperation and commitment, the fate of your loved ones rests on your actions. It is in your interest to survive. Defy us by refusing to play and we will decimate your homelands. To win, the rules are simple: by whatever means, cross the finish line before the designated cull number. But in the end, only one of you will remain. Muscular arms protruded out of black studded vests that strained to contain stocky chests. An animal emblem . claws . incisors . whiskers. was sewn in orange upon their breasts. Dagger shafts jutted out of belts, pouches, and boots. Assassins? What did these rough men want with him? Betrayed. Kidnapped. A farm boy mistaken for a warrior, Jairus must survive the Emperor s Games or everyone he loves will be incinerated by the war dragons. Thousands compete for the dragon banner, but in the end there can only be one winner. The adjudicator thumped the scepter into the ground three times. By the fates, the war dragons will not return until a new emperor wins the dragon scepter. The crowd parted as Tekagi threaded her way toward the funeral cart waiting by the main gate. Tiger pelts adorned the two caskets. Only emperors earned the right to be entombed within the Dragon Palace. The sons were relegated to less hallowed ground. A few of her most treasured belongings were also piled on the cart. No longer an emperor s daughter she was being cast out of the palace. A limp tiger tail trailed over the side of the...
