Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . His deepest fear is desire. In what way are you afraid of your own power of longing? Are you ever unwilling to release the full force of your passion, concerned that it might drive you out of control or lead you awry? Has the original owner of Fallonside House property been a vampire for over a century? Who haunts Fallonside House? And why? Can Rodrigo, Triston, and Micah communicate with the dead through the ghostly, magical qualities of a mysterious cameo? Is the Smithsonian Institution hiding details of past archeological discoveries that would rock our present understanding of the past? Did they really take a barge full of unusual artifacts (related to American mummies/giants) into the Atlantic and dump them? Rodrigo, Triston, and Micah make startling cave discoveries, leading to the revelation of a rewriting of history. The three explorers find a secret in a secret room at Fallonside House. Subsequently, an adventure ensues where they discover hundreds of mummies in a cave on Kentucky property. Micah finds a cameo that lands in Rodrigo s hands, which completely alters their conception of a plethora of supernatural events outside this dimension. Vampire Rodrigo Garcia Olza wants to make sure at least one part of him always stays untamed, incapable of being categorized, and not enslaved by routine. He wants to remain intimately connected to all that is mysterious about his life. Rodrigo doesn t want to be involved in anything conventional: he is fascinated by the unusual, the unconventional, and wants to challenge limitations. Freedom dominates his desires. Since he is a bold spirit of experimentation, he wants to be unpredictable, eccentric, and controversial. Vampire Rodrigo wants to learn to know and...
