MISCELLANEOUS HULLABALOO COLLECTED WORKS 1992-2007

iUniverse, Inc. Paperback. Condition: New. 178 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 5.9in. x 0.7in. In his debut collection, Miscellaneous Hullabaloo: Collected Works 1992-2007, author and musician David Q. Tague shares some of his most prized possessions—his lyrics, lamentations, and laughs. Originally intended for rock stardom, Tague has taken up writing to entertain family, friends, and co-workers over the past fifteen years. Proving to be too much material for a hit album, hardly enough to span an award-winning career, yet just enough to clutter up other people's homes and his own residence, Miscellaneous Hullabaloo is Tague's portable anthology. Songs, poems, and humorous articles express his unique perspective on an assortment of topics ranging from the eventual fate of humankind to the antidote for unnecessary seriousness. Miscellaneous Hullabaloo is like the ultimate garage sale: you can spend a few hours in pursuit of good deals, seek out unrealized treasures, or just browse at your leisure and forget about the cares of the day. So don't just pass by—sit down, relax, and take in a few pages! You never know what you might find, and what you do may very well surprise you. Either way, Miscellaneous Hullabaloo is definitely worth a look. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
