Was it when you had your first sleepover and you and your friends tried to see who could come up with the scariest story? Was it on a camping trip out in the woods when you were surrounded by darkness and had no way of knowing what was out there? Regardless of who told you your first ghost story and where you heard it, it is inevitable that some of these frightening tales have stayed with you. Countless adults feel as though they can logically explain the existence of the paranormal; and yet, those same adults will find themselves wide awake in the middle of the night as they struggle to figure out what made that disturbing noise down the hall. Ghost stories are extremely powerful and can continue to frighten us years after we've heard them. A large reason for why ghost stories remain captivating is that many of them are based on real life events. These things happen all around the world, in every city and every town. As you read this collection of true accounts of paranormal events, remember that there is no place completely safe from things that go bump in the night.
