

Reminiscences of Albany (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By John J Hill

Forgotten Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Reminiscences of Albany In an address before the Albany Institute, in June last, I narrated most of the events, and alluded to the career of a large majority of the persons described in these Reminiscences. I now take occasion to revert to my first visit to Albany in 1825 and to relate, that with a few years intermission, I resided there until 1855, during which period I had opportunity of witnessing the increase of the city in population and wealth. Passing over for the present the interim between 1825, and May, 1831, I further remark, that in or about that month, I became a student in the law office of Azor Taber, Esq., located in Backus Building, on the corner of State and James Streets, in your city. Amos Dean afterward became associated with Mr. Taber, and the firm was Taber Dean. During my studentship, I had as associate students, Sidney Dean (managing clerk), Charles B. Lansing, John C. Yates, son of John V. N. Yates, Westerlo Woodworth, son of Judge Woodworth, Henry A. Walker, son of Willard Walker, Halsey R....

READ ONLINE
[9.38 MB]

Reviews

This pdf will never be straightforward to get going on studying but quite enjoyable to read through. This is certainly for all those who statte there was not a really worth studying. You are going to like the way the blogger publish this publication.

-- Mrs. Adah Sawayn

Basically no words to describe. We have read through and i also am sure that i am going to going to read once more once again later on. You may like just how the article writer compose this publication.

-- Mrs. Jane Quitzon DDS