Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you are a Frequent Flyer or an In-frequent Flyer, this humorous book about flying is for you! The author spent many hours in the air as a Frequent Flyer and while in the air, he wrote down his experiences which enabled him to write this book. Here comes the Jet - hear the roar, Goodbye Honey - I m out the door, See you in a week - maybe more. It really depends on my direction, and if I can make my connection. Dallas - Seattle - Portland - LA, that s not bad in a single day. I ve logged more miles than an Astronaut, And here s some things that I ve been taught. I can fasten my seat belt in a flash, Buy cocktails with expense account cash. Eat a meal from a plastic tray, or hear the pilot come on and say. . We re expecting some turbulence.a little rough air.so we advise you to keep your seat belt fastened and not leave your chair. Be calm.there s really no cause for alarm.by the way, we re running a little behind today. We ll only be an hour or so late but you shouldn t have any trouble making your gate. When we get the airport in sight, we ll advise you more about your connecting flight! I guess by now you think I m a liar but all I am is a FREQUENT FLYER! Written by the Author at 30,000 feet The book contains humorous chapters on: You know you re a frequent flyer when.; Frequent Flyer Dictionary; Quotes about flying; Airway Rules; Airline Obituaries; Flight Attendant Humor; and Flying Jokes.
