Excerpt from Tammy Howl, Vol. 18: October 31, 1944 After going through the receiving line, the girls were taken by the old girls to the auditorium where they all danced to the music of a Gulfport Field orchestra. In this way - the old girls got acquainted with the new ones and helped them to feel more at home. Later, punch and chocolate cake were served in the court. A perfect end to a perfect evening! Dr. And Mrs. Cox honored the new mem bers of the faculty at a formal dinner on Thursday evening, October 10, in Gulf Park s dining room. The entire faculty, Dr. And Mrs. Cox, Mr. And Mrs. Cooke, and the hostesses were seated in the center of the room at the tables arranged as one. The student body sat at remaining tables around the room. The dining room was filled with bouquets of roses on the tables and around the room. The billowing Pampas grass was arranged in a striking centerpiece on the buffet. After the delicious meal, the various class songs were sung. The dinner ended with the sing ing of our Alma Mater.
