Black and White Publishing, United Kingdom, 2003. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Scottish . Brand New Book. These two novellas - on related themes but very different in approach and narrative voice - are bound back to back or heelstergowdie , the Scots for back to front or head over heels . Loon, by Sheena Blackhall, tells the story of Donnie Paterson and how his troubled life is turned around by the discovery of his missing grandfather in a retirement home and a holiday in the Highlands where he hears a strange story that becomes the key to solving his problems. In Gilbert McGlinchy, by Hamish MacDonald, the eponymous narrator has the weight of the world s woes on his shoulders so sets out to make his drab Clydebank surroundings exotic by embarking on a story-telling journey - the rationale for which only slowly unfolds. Presented in a single volume, these two novellas meet, quite literally, halfway.
