Not illustrated. 1891 Excerpt: . . . drove one of the largest buffaloes in the herd toward the party, seeing which many ladies who were among the interested spectators became very much frightened, showing as much trepidation, perhaps, as they would have manifested had the buffalo been an enraged lion. But when the ponderous, shaggy-headed beast came within a few yards of the party Bill shot it dead, thus giving a grand coup detat to the days sport, which closed with this magnificent exhibition of skill and daring. The day having now been far spent, and time called, it was found that the score stood thus: Buffalo Bill, sixtynine; Comstock, forty-six. The former was therefore declared winner and entitled to the championship as the most skillful buffalo-slayer in America. CHAPTER XLT. After the great buffalo killing match the name of Buffalo Bill became familiar all over the country, and his exploits, generally, were...
