

The Game of Whist (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Game of Whist II. Whist is really a new game. That is to say, it has been studied scientifically by capable persons only during a generation or so. And it offers a wide field for research and analysis. It has its disadvantages in the shape of stupid traditions. To which super?uous weight is lent by the fact that most players are tossed into playing, and graft on the natural, carnal man s inclination to make all his aces and kings first, and lead from his short suits so as to trump. Some superstition bequeathed by his earliest mentor. The first step taken by the author of American Whist is excel lent and practical; he would sweep away the whole code and substitute 14 laws, proceeding on the assumption that the whist-player is a gentleman who plays cards for intellectual pleasure. The game is to be played in silence; there are 7 points; honors are not counted. And the penalties are loss of deal for a misdeal, facing or exposing a card; forfeiture of a point for throwing 2...
