Booksurge Publishing, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Sound Biblical Preaching: Giving the Bible a Voice is a comprehensive book on preaching that remarkably provides a survey of the whole subject in a short page span. Dr. Franklin L. Kirksey presents a compendium of information that is a veritable anthology of great preachers, past and present, to encourage, instruct and inspire the reader. This highly recommended book has a motivational message for the beginning preacher, the seasoned veteran of the pulpit and for one exploring God's call to preach the Word. As a result of careful reading and extensive research, Kirksey offers many practical how to insights, for example: How to accept the call of God; How to make sure you have been called and How to understand and undertake the call of God. The author insightfully weaves the sobering realities of the pastorate and the heavenly idealism of the pulpit ministry into this practical handbook that should be required reading for every preaching class. This must read book has been described as very readable, and a fast read with powerful punch. Dr. Stephen F. Olford, Founder and Senior Lecturer of the Stephen Olford Center for Biblical Preaching, Memphis, Tennessee writes, . . . SOUND BIBLICAL PREACHING is a welcome contribution to the high and holy calling to rightly divide the word of truth . WARNING: Franklin Kirksey's passion for sound biblical preaching is contagious, according to Dr. Roger D. Willmore, Senior Pastor, Deerfoot Baptist Church, Trussville, Alabama. In the words of Dr. Robert G. Witty, Founder and President Emeritus, Luther Rice Seminary, Buy the book, digest its content, apply its teaching. You will be rewarded in your ministry.
