CREATING THE SELF IN THE CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN THEATRE (HARDBACK)

Southern Illinois University Press, United States, 1998. Hardback. Condition: New. Reissue. Language: English . Brand New Book. Combining his skills as both a professional reviewer of theatre and a literary critic, Robert J. Andreach finds himself in a position to provide coherence to what most observers perceive as an unrelated welter of contemporary theatrical experiecnes. Exploring the theatre from the 1960s to the present, he shows the various ways in which the contemporary American theatre creates a personal, theatrical and...
