Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Address by Hon. S. S. Hayes: At the Annual Commencement of the University of Notre Dame, Ind., June 24th, 1874 When I accepted the invitation to make some remarks on this occasion I did not understand that I would be set down on the programme for an oration. A composition so elaborate, so perfect in style and design, so rich with the graces of rhetoric as to be worthy to be called an oration, I have neither the leisure nor the ability to produce. Even if qualified to make the attempt, I should hesitate, in the presence of this assembly, these learned professors, and these young gentle men, fresh from the classics and familiar with the best models of ancient and modern times. With your permission I shall only offer a few practical observations to that portion of my audience who, having spent some happy years amidst these pleasant scenes in the education of their faculties and the acquisition of knowledge, under the guidance of these eminent and skillful teachers, are about to enter upon a new phase of life, with which at present they are but little acquainted.
