TO ARGUE LOGICALLY OR WITH HEART: MIND AND BELIEF (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This book, To Argue Logically or with Heart- Mind and Belief written by Dr. Saida Seddik, is considered an Intellectual contribution which shows the capability to expose modern issues and give the solutions to solve them. The author was able to resemble the everlasting conflict between logic and belief or mind and heart. Ever since the dawn of creation, this conflict occurred and will continue to occur till the last day of life. However, this book is an effective way to put the mind and belief in an open dialogue by implanting a new system of thinking and approaching modern issues of capitalism and imperialism. In addition to new ideas, this book has summed up about the conflict modern style of life is going through. It states that the conflict is embodied here as a conflict between two systems which are the imperialism and communism, the industrial and knowledge, modern and traditional, secular and spiritual, this conflict between two systems would lead in a better situation if people take the responsibility to act. The effectiveness of the people position is primordial to make the real change, their capacity to fight back, their instinct to fight their will to change weakened by strong and powerful corporations, tyrannical governments which impose the modeled system. The system which only benefit the elite without offering justice to worker class and middle class with small business that keeps the economy on. This injustice, the lack of justice: social, economic, political, and environment justice affect society, cause inflation, decrease the capability of purchase, and cause violence. The author discusses the imperialism system in all its levels: social, economic, political, environmental, and in technology. Her conception is based...
