Not illustrated. 1866 Excerpt: .one of which brought information from the overseers, of the non-attendance of our meetings by two of our members, and also of their attendance upon places of diversion. Another, of the marriage of one of our members with a person not in membership with us, which marriage was accomplished with the assistance of a Methodist minister. The queries were now read with the answers from the several preparative meetings, a summary of which was Prepared and directed to be forwarded to the ensuing Quarterly Meeting. The answer of one meeting stated a marked increase in the neglect which had before been reported in the attendance of our meetings. The usual advices were read, all of them evidently well intended, though some of them are a little behind time, late rapidly changing events having made them obsolete. The proposed Meeting of Conference with a view to awaken increased interest in society was now considered, and with the concurrence of Women Friends, a joint committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. The committee of last month appointed to attend a marriage, reported it orderly accomplished and the certificate delivered to the recorder. A removal certificate for a Friend and his family, with a duplicate which had been issued because of the originals having been mislaid, was presented and accepted; and another was presented and referred to the committee on certificates. A communication was received from the Broooldyn Preparative meeting, asking that the time otholding that meeting be...
