

Paying for College: Before, During and After (2018 Edition) (Paperback)

By Mark P Bilotta

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Paying for College: Before, During and After takes a new, more helpful approach to understanding a confusing topic. In this 2018 edition, author Mark Bilotta recommends that students and families step back and look at the entire process of funding a college education which, for many, could span two or three decades! Think about it. When you add up the years of saving (before), enrolling (during), and repaying loans (after), it could be a financial commitment of more than thirty years! The author walks his readers through each step of this process, in short, easy-to-understand chapters, ending most chapters with additional resources and where to turn for more details. One good example of this effective approach comes in Chapter 12, Loans: How to Borrow. He asks readers to first think in terms of their anticipated annual salary after graduation. By doing this, he shows his readers what they can afford as a monthly loan payment without sacrificing their financial security. He then works backwards and demonstrates what dollar amount they can reasonably borrow for their college education. Armed with this information,...
