Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the 21st Century, one of the most striking and worrisome phenomena in the western world, is the little interest that people show in religious matters. This is especially true, in the youth. The consequences of this situation are multiple. They include the following critical issues; moral bankruptcy, the increase in the level of criminality, the massive consumption of all kinds of drugs and their trafficking, a higher degree of academic failure among the youth, an alarming rate of juvenile delinquency, the easy disintegration of marriages, a higher and glamorization of prostitution with its legalization in some countries, social injustice, the increase of religious sects, the increase of passion crimes and a remarkable decrease in requests for religious vocations. This list is endless. People are spiritually helpless and find themselves powerless, before the gradual de-Christianization of society. In Spain, where the majority of people are catholic, the church pinned the blame on the social policy of the then socialist government. It is headed by Mr. Luis Rodríguez Zapatero. In other European Countries, the blame has been directed to modernization. The echo of this accusation was received by the late pontiff, His Holiness, Pope John Paul the II. May his soul rest in peace. Before the worsening of his health condition, he called the attention of the Spanish people, in general. He called on the social Government, in particular. This was a clarion call for them not to drift away from their Christian roots. The representative of Saint Peter, on earth, was right in his point of view and call. The Holy Sage received the right answer to this spiritual problem. In the first place, who are the members of Government? Most of...
