International Monetary Fund (IMF), United States, 1997. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In recent years the process of financial liberalization has spread in both developed and developing countries. This liberalization has been accompanied by increased global financial integration, which has lead to a great expansion of cross-border capital flows. The impact of these developments on the economies on the Arab region and their prospects for the future were the focus of a seminar held in Abu Dhabi, January 1994.
